COLLINS VIII 39 states: This ancient family is denominated from the town of Dutton, in Cheshire; for Odard, being seated there in the Conqueror's time, his posterity were surnamed de Dutton, from the place of their residence. Sir Peter Leycester, in his Historical Antiquities of Cheshire, has given us the pedigree of the Duttons of Dutton, which, he says, is faithfully collected from the evidences of that family, and other good records and deeds; and is as followeth. ODARD, or UDARD, sometimes also written Hodard and Hudard, came to England with William the Conqueror, and seated himself at Dutton; a good part whereof Hugli Lupus, Earl of Chester, gave unto him, as appears by Doomsday-book. The ancient roll of the Barons of Halton saith, that with Hugh, Earl of Chester, came one Nigell, a nobleman; and with Nigell came five brethren, to wit, Hudard, Edard, Wolmere, Horswyne, and Wolfaitb, a priest, to whom Nigell gave the church of Runcorne; and unto Hudard the same Nigell gave Weston, and Great Aston (now divided into two townships, Aston Grange, and Aston juxta Sutton), pro uno Feodo Militis: and from this Hudard came all the Duttons. And, in the record of Doomsday, Odard held Aston, under William Fitz-Nigell, Baron of Halton; and also Odard and Brictric held Weston, under the said William, anno Dom. 1086.
